

Maliau Basin, The Lost World of Sabah

Hidden deep in Sabah lies Maliau Basin, one of the world's most pristine and biodiverse primary rainforest conservation areas. Trek along the Maliau Rim, where the basin's vast bowl-shaped formation has created an isolated ecosystem home to unique species of flora and fauna. A heaven for waterfall lovers, the basin is home to Maliau Falls, its crown jewel, a spectacular seven-tiered waterfall with cascades reaching up to 18 metres high. This once-in-a-lifetime journey is designed for nature lovers like you, ready to trek deep into one of Earth's last great wildernesses.
